

Managing Engineer Structural

The New York City School Construction Authority (NYCSCA) designs, builds and renovates public school buildings throughout all of the five (5) boroughs. We have excellent opportunities for talented and experienced Structural Engineers to join the NYCSCA Team.

This position depending on the level is responsible for planning, implementation, managing and oversight of various major and complex structural designs and construction of new schools and existing buildings renovation including building envelope projects. Other responsibilities include; managing and supervising technical staff, assigning and scheduling staff for projects, participating in the development of scope and design projects, coordination and oversight of interdisciplinary project teams, projects' budget and schedule management, participating in day-to-day operation- training and guiding technical staff and resolving issues during design and construction, reviewing and writing reports, enforcing standards, rules and regulations, scheduling and chairing coordination and progress meetings, assisting in the development of standards and procedural guidelines,-signing and sealing official documents as Professional Engineer, as necessary and representing Authority with inter-departmental and regulatory agencies coordination.

Requirements

All levels require a valid New York State license as a Professional Engineering license;

Level A requires: Seven years of full time progressive experience as a Professional Engineer; three years must have been as a leader, project engineer, or major project contributor

Level A salary range: $76,445 - $129,745

Level B requires: Eight years of full time progressive experience as Professional Engineer; four years must have been as a project leader, project engineer or major project contributor

Level B salary range: $85,558 - $145,209

Current New York State Professional Engineer license must be maintained for the duration of employment for all levels.

We offer excellent benefits including medical, dental, prescription and vision coverage; retirement savings plans including pension, 401K, 457 and IRA options and generous paid time off, among other significant benefits.

Visit our website <http://www.nycsca.org/Careers/Employment>

Apply to Job # 3-2007 Managing Engineer A/B (Structural)

NYCSCA is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer